Handy Hints:

- Read the schedule carefully and be sure that the exact number of specimens required is staged.
 - All the vegetables should be washed, not scrubbed. Uniformity is important
 - Fruit, tomatoes, peas, carrots and beans should have their stalks attached.
 - Do not polish fruit.
 - Blooms may be dressed by removing a few damaged petals but make sure they are removed cleanly and re-arrange other petals to fill any gaps.
 - Cookery exhibits should never be warm when placed for judging and should always be covered with a suitable film.
 - Check lids of all bottles/jars and make sure all are clearly labelled.

Can you volunteer to be a judge?

If so please email radwintervh@gmail.com
